Welcome to C.A.S.T. Solutions website.

We are a service organization designed to serve the needs of churches, ministries and other not for profit organizations seeking consultation concerning administrative issues. The business of the church and ministries is people. However, it is imperative that we have a great structure to best serve the needs of the people.

That is where C.A.S.T. comes in. We can help take the day-to-day business activities of the church and provide you with a plan to administrate those operations.

No matter how small or large your organization is, we have the passion and the experience of over 30 years to help you. So, take a few moments, search through our pages, and let us know how we
